ABSTRACT :

This article studies in detail the skin disease covered in the book, although the book includes almost each disease in detailed, but this article focuses on the role of murphy repertory in skin disease. Homoeopathic medical repertory is one of the greatest contributions to homoeopathy by Dr. Robin murphy.

The Homoeopathic Medical Repertory is a comprehensive resource based on J.T Kent's Materia Medica and Dr.C. B. Knerr's Hering's guiding symptoms of our Materia Medica. It contains 74 chapters organized alphabetically according to anatomy, physiology, or clinical topic. Murphy's concept of totality is based on clinical and classical homeopathic practice, incorporating principles from Kent's generals, Boenninghausen's complete symptoms, Boger's pathological generals, and other stalwarts' clinical principles.

The repertory is particularly useful in treating skin diseases, providing detailed coverage of skin-related symptoms, hierarchical organization, cross-references, inclusion of modern and contemporary remedies, and ease of use. It helps identify key symptoms, select the most appropriate remedy, understand remedy relationships, provide dosing and potency guidance, and monitor patient progress. Some rubrics related to skin from Murphy's Repertory include skin eruptions, dryness, sensations, ulcers, warts, rashes, itching, and discoloration. The repertory is designed to be user-friendly and accessible to homeopaths of all levels of experience.

INTRODUCTION :

Homoeopathic medical repertory, the murphy's repertory is an alphabetical, clinical repertory. It is based on both classical and clinical concepts. Dr. Robin murphy was born on august 15,1950 in Grand Rapids, Michigan. His undergraduate studies were carried out at the university of Michigan at Ann Arbor. Dr.Robin Murphy was one of the well known teacher in the field of homoeopathy. He has significant teaching and clinical experience and he has spent years as the chairman of the homoeopathic department at the national college of naturopathic medicine in Portland.

Murphy is one of the earliest seminar teachers and he introduced many people to homoeopathy. He died at his home in USA on November 18th 2021.Homoeopathic medical repertory is one of the greatest contributions to homoeopathy by Dr. Robin murphy. Homoeopathic Medical Repertory is mainly based on the repertory of homoeopathic Materia Medica by J.T Kent and Repertory of Hering's guiding symptoms of our Materia Medica by Dr.C.B Knerr.

This repertory contains 74 chapters arranged in an alphabetical order. They were rearranged and compiled from the original 36 chapters found in Kent's Repertory.

The Homeopathic Clinical Repertory was created to be more consistent with Hahnemann's anatomical and physiological categories and has been reorganized into an alphabetical order. This schema was chosen as the most natural organizational method for large amounts of information, bringing this repertory into line with the homeopathic materia medica.

The chapters in this book are arranged alphabetically according to anatomy, physiology or clinical topic. The rubrics and sub-rubrics contained in each chapter are also sorted into an alphabetical format

Murphy's concept of totality is based on clinical as well as classical homeopathic practice. It embraces the principles of Kent's generals, Boenninghausen's complete symptoms, Boger's pathological generals and other stalwarts' clinical principles of prescribing.

This repertory can be used for all types of cases:

1. Where mental and generals are prominent.
2. Where clinical symptoms/diagnosis are available.
3. Pathological generals/constitutions are available.
4. Where complete symptoms are available.
5. Where the case has a paucity of symptoms

Gradation system used in the Murphy Repertory:

- 3: A strong, intense, or characteristic symptom [Ars].

- 2: A moderate or general symptom [ars].
- 1: A mild or less significant symptom [ars].
